I am pleased to write this letter in support of Orville Chubb's candidacy for a seat on the Edmonton Public School Board.

Orville was a board member of Arts of the Ave (AOTA) for three years (from 2008–11), during which time he served as AOTA treasurer. Orville assumed the treasurer role at a crucial time in AOTA's history and carried out his duties efficiently and effectively. He singlehandedly organized a fundraising casino and introduced policies and procedures that helped us manage our festivals and many activities.

Throughout his tenure, Orville was an intelligent, creative and amiable colleague and a great asset Arts on the Ave. I wholeheartedly endorse him as an excellent candidate for the Edmonton Public School Board.
